Washington, DC _ On August 11, 2017, President Trump officially declared the opioid crisis “a National Emergency.” This declaration is Washington’s response to the increased deaths caused from this epidemic in recent years. The details are being considered now but no specific plan of attack has yet been made public. The opportunity and need for assistance is apparent, and immediate.

RU Recovery Program and its Position in OHIO _ Bible Baptist Church in Grove City, Ohio, Pastor, Stan Slabaugh, and RU Director, Bob Reed are coordinating this event. RU Recovery Ministries is a Non-Profit (501-C3) faith-based addiction program, based in Rockford, Illinois. RU hosts over 1,500 chapters worldwide. The concentration of this epidemic appears to be in the state of Ohio. RU Recovery has a large presence in this area, with over 50 chapters currently meeting within the state.
